PRIVILEGES OF COMMUNIST CHIRFS, INCREASE IN SUICIDES IN BUDAPEST

COMMUNIST CHIEFS LEAD LUXURIOUS LIFE -- Rome, Bolettino Danubiano, 11 Apr 52

Numbers of the government, directors of the party, high state efficients, and members of the local councils live luxuriously in Hungary.

The 25 ministers, 50 deputy ministers, 20 members of the Presidential Council, and some other persons receive, in addition to high salaries, rent-free large luxury villas. Erzsebet Andics, a member of the Presidential Council, lives in a most luxurious villa with a garden on Orso Street. His daughter married the son of Minister of Wer Farkas. The con is an instrucy youth. The daughter has another luxurious villa at Pasareti ut, the favorite residential section of Communist chiefs. Similar living conditions are assigned to Professor Istvan Rusznyak, Jeno Katona, Erno Mihalyfi, and Gyorgy Parragi.

There people have luxurious automobiles, fuel, electric light, gas, and telephones and receive daily food deliveries at their homes by government trucks all gratis. Even their servants are paid by the government.

Among the former ministers, only Lajos Dinnyes and Gyula Ortutay have survived. They are still leading comfortable lives and have their government automobiles. Dinnyes may be seen day and night at the best cafes with his girl friend. As yet, no one in Budapest has been able to discover what services these two former ministers could have rendered to Hoscow to earn such special favor.

50-60 SUICIDES DAILY IN BUDAPEST -- Rome, Bollettino Danubiano, 11 Apr 52

According to various sources, the number of suicides in Budspest varied between 1,500 and 1,800 a month from December 1951 to 31 March 1952. This figure means that 50 to 60 persons commit suicide every day in the capital of Hungary.
